You've been into another time
Dancing fairies all in a line
Sets a kind of emotional rule
Flittering hearts will make the fool

We stand before Mother June
Under the velvet moon
Seeking that final tune
Under the velvet moon
Five phases of the rune
Under the velvet moon
It comes now all too soon
Under the velvet moon

Tease the willow until straight
Timeless age of ageless fate
Silver strands echo the call

Nothing here makes sense at all

Held by no man's rule
Under the velvet moon
Starless night black and cool
Under the velvet moon
Garnet eyes of the jewel
Under the velvet moon

Secrets within never mentioned
The smile of knowing intention
Quiet mysteries never known
Seeing through the crystal stone

And through the mysts of it all
Comes times immortal call
As the raven flies on past
The future has now been cast
