Can you see into my cat's eyes
Well I'll tell you the most vicious lies
And I'll take your breath away
Then I'll leave you by the light of day
I've got power you can't resist
You'll love to die by my kiss
The grip around your neck will tighten

Sometimes my love is frightening

Do you want my wicked kiss
Little closer now baby
Do you want my wicked kiss
Don't you fight me now

I'm known by many names
It doesn't matter it's just the same
Well sometimes it has a meaning
Well I'll always leave you screaming
