Devastation, radiation, paralyzing fear
Terrorizing, demons rising, termination's here
Stratospheric, energetic, drifting on the stream
Agonizing, isolation, inside the machine

Reborn in chaos and war
What has it all been good for
Reach out and take my hand
The children must live, the killing must end

Brother, you must awake
Brother, before it's too late
Here we stand like shadows
Of great things in the past
Hear my call, oh brother
Let's right the wrongs at last

Lifeless bloodhound, executor of our fatal law
Blinded by your wrong conclusion
Truth you see no more

Now the defender attacks
The land he's been supposed to protect
This is our legacy
Together we're facing our destiny

Brother, you must awake
Brother, before it's too late
Here we stand like shadows
Of great things in the past
Hear my call, oh brother
Let's right the wrongs at last

Reach out and take my hand
The children must live, the killing must end
This is our legacy
Together we're facing our destiny

Brother, you must awake
Brother, before it's too late
Here we stand like shadows
Of great things in the past

Hear my call, oh brother
Let's right the wrongs at last

We are brothers of the past
Oh, let's right the wrongs at last
