[Music and Lyrics by Sielck]

Sometimes I dream of a place to forget where I would find some peace of mind but the world just ain't like that holy wars - armies are marching terror is lashing the land an eye for an eye - blood for blood death in the name of god sometimes I wish myself just far away to spread out my wings and fly away here in my mind I can leave it all behind to ride on the wind

like an eagle in the skies high above the land and sea I'm riding free higher and higher ascending to the skies where no one takes my liberty I'm riding free - I'm riding free

Memories forever they're gonna last shook my heart to the very ground as the walls came tumbling down almighty towers are grinded to dust a graveyard of rubble remains I saw them crying - I saw them dying as they've been burned in the flames

onto a land where my fate is in my hand

I'm riding the wind

escalating violence in circles of brutality suicide assassins
but there ain't no victory fanatic believers - religious deceivers the holy land is soiled with blood attack - revenge - hi-tech war in the name of god

[solo Piet]

open up your eyes and look up to the skies spread your wings and fly away just for a while forget about your sorrow there'll always be tomorrow let the wind take you far away ride on the wind

riding free
