[Music by Kustner/Sielck, Lyrics by Sielck]

Far beyond our boundary a danger has emerged far out in the black it's getting ready to attack cold and tearless retinas are staring at the world raiders from an ancient land where life came to an end worlds are colliding
but onwards we're riding
to get to the core
the center of all
the iron fist will make the tyrants fall

to strike them down...

mighty savior - giant made of steel
let your hammer pound
on the evil we'll reveal robot raiders - tyranny of steel
let your hammer pound
defending our very ground

power shielded, cybernetic, circuits driven force
unrelenting war machines showing no remorse
forged by insanity
in ancient history
creations of hate
made to terminate
no way of hiding
so therefore we're riding

to get to the core

to strike them down
to smash their crown

...
defending our ground

[lead Piesel and Piet]

titans colliding
but onwards we're riding
beyond the abyss
the center of all

to strike them down
to smash them down

under the banner
of freedom we're riding
