Gabriella Ellis:

Sometimes I'm scared to be alone
Sometimes I'm happy on my own
Sometimes I'm blue
'Cause I miss you
And when I lay my head to sleep
We are together in my dreams
You know it's true
I'll always need you

Ironik:

Listen
Yeah
I'll always need you too
I can be a lover you can be my boo
Everytime I sleep my dream features you
And everytime I daydream I just see you
I wanna hold you forever and ever
I know I told you many times but your mine forever
Whoever tries to bring us down really ain't clever
'Cause the loves gonna last forever and ever

Gabriella Ellis:

So I imagine
You and me sitting on a blue sky in a lovely day
(It's a lovely day I'm feeling good even though the skys are grey)
And I feel happy
As you take my hand and you listen to every word I say
(Every word you say)
(I'm feeling good even though the skys are grey)

We take a walk over the sand
A love like eyes have never planned
If this is bliss can I die like this
And when you touch your mouth to mine
My heart explodes
I'm feeling fine
I know its true
Nobody's like you

So I imagine

You and me sitting on a blue sky in a lovely day

(It's a lovely day I'm feeling good even though the skys
are grey)

And I feel happy

As you take my hand and you listen to every word I say

(Every word you say)

(I'm feeling good even though the skys are grey)

Ironik:

Look

I know you miss me boo

I want you to know that I miss you too

It's only what's real 'cause I'm telling the truth

My emotions are loose and my heart's missing you

And as I said before I want you forever and ever

And now I'll never leave you ever

Never we could be together forever

Imagine forever

Gabriella Ellis:

And yes I've cried and yes I've died

And yes I've fallen into pieces

Over you

And if I could and if I would

I'd be forgetting all about you

It's never that simple

(Uhhhhhuhhhhhuuhhhh)

So I imagine

You and me sitting on a blue sky in a lovely day

(It's a lovely day I'm feeling good even though the skys
are grey)

And I feel happy

As you take my hand and you listen to every word I say

(Every word you say)

(I'm feeling good even though the skys are grey)

I'm scared to be alone

Happy on my own

Blue

When I lay my head to sleep

we are together in my dreams
