Translation:

"Truth"

Another day has begun

It's a morning of hope

And a warm light will touch your smile

And in every dawn there is always a reason

Longing for the top.

Cause the truth is in you

She will give you the power

To find the truth again

Then you won't runaway

Then you'll sing a song of freedom

You'll feel like a hero

Then you'll know you'll getting there

Don't closer yourself open an inner window

Go and see the world

Then You'll understand why & what

That there is a love to get & recive

To everyone who wants.
