"Hope"

Plant a little piece of home and watch it grow
Plant it tenderly with love and let it show
That as the miracle before your eyes unfolds

You'll see the field of hope turn to a field of gold
A tiny little flower bathed in gold
Holding all your hope and dreams untold
And silently you say a prayer each night
Asking God on high to make things right

Everyone needs hope to keep on going
A tiny dream that they can hold on to
And in the spring when sweet birds sing
And small flowers start to show
That's the time that everyone will know
That like these tiny flowers hope can grow

Just like flowers need the rain and sun
Hope lives in the hearts of everyone
We need to know we have some one to care
And hope will grow when love is everywhere

Everyone needs hope to keep on going
A tiny dream that they can hold on to
And in the Spring when sweet birds sing
And small flowers start to show
That's the time that everyone will know
That like these tiny flowers hope can grow

That's the time that everyone will know
That like these tiny flowers hope can grow
