Late night to talk this over
Drunk love is getting sober
That clicks with discover
You say it's not worth it, no.

This comical, cut this classic effect
How could it stop so I could realize
Thinking of a loved one and anything to regret.

Set us up by rumors and not by you
You blamed us for lack of pursuit
Counting in your colors for anything to regret.

Think of the past and your mind will be gone.

Late night to talk this over
Drunk love is getting sober
That clicks with discover
You say it's not worth it.
Late night to talk this over
Drunk love is getting sober, no.
You say it's not worth it.

Here's typical, cut this normal effect.
How many words produced by thread
Looking up for love was for something to regret

I felt the words, but not the love
You hide them it means enough
Your make up, you're caked up, with anything to regret

Think of the past and your mind will be gone.

Late night to talk this over
Drunk love is getting sober
That clicks with discover
You say it's not worth it.
Late night to talk this over
Drunk love is getting sober, no.
You say it's not worth it.

Whoa....

You can't, you can't, you can't

You say it's not worth it

You can't, you can't

You say,

You say it's not worth it
