I said her love is my religion, is my religion, is my religion, is my religion

Some have them Bibles, and some go to church
Well I found my heaven, inside of her

We all need something to believe, gotta find our destiny
I've got her and she's got me
I see her when I close my eyes, she's my only G-d in life
Never gonna say goodbye

Cause I see the stars and the freckles on her face
And I'm seeing G-d every time she says my name
So mother Mary pray for me whenever I'm so lost
Her love is my religion

Some have their crosses and their golden gates
Well she is the grace I wear when I lose my faith

We all need something to believe, the words we say before we sleep

Close my eyes and she's my dream,
She's the truth inside my world of lies
Keeping all my hope alive
Never gonna say goodbye...

Cause I see the stars and the freckles on her face
And I'm seeing G-d every time she says my name
So mother Mary pray for me whenever I'm so lost
Her love is my religion

Her love is my religion, is my religion, is my religion
I said her love is my religion, is my religion, is my religion
(x2)

Cause I see the stars and the freckles on her face
And I'm seeing G-d every time she says my name
So mother Mary pray for me whenever I'm so lost
Her love is my religion

I said her love is my religion, is my religion, is my religion (x2)
