Who are you?
You're looking like a stranger
You were once my love and my savior
Now I'm left with nothing but your make up on my pillow
I can't sleep
The pills they never help
Try counting sheep still hurts like hell
I can't believe this rose has lost it's red and it's petals
Who put that rock in your chest won't you tell me?
If I said I wished you the best I was lying

Wakin' up just brings me down down
Cause every morning you are nowhere to be found
nowhere to be found
And my bed is half empty not half full
I'd rather live with broken bones
Than lay here all on my own like a lovesick fool
Like a lovesick fool
Like a lovesick fool
Like a lovesick fool

Where'd you go
You said you'd never leave me
All alone my heart is barely beating
Like a ghost you haunt me everyday that you're gone
I'm not the same now something went missing
At best a cage it feels like a prison
Here I said until you come back home home

Who put that rock in your chest won't you tell me?
If I said I wished you the best I was lying

Wakin' up just brings me down down
Cause every morning you are nowhere to be found
nowhere to be found
And my bed is half empty not half full
I'd rather live with broken bones
Than lay here all on my own like a lovesick fool
Am I a lovesick fool
Or am I hearing no?
Am I a lovesick fool

Wakin' up just brings me down down
Cause every morning you are nowhere to be found
nowhere to be found
Wakin' up just breaks me down down
Cause every morning you are nowhere to be found
nowhere to be found
And my bed is half empty not half full
I'd rather live with broken bones
Than lay here all on my own like a lovesick fool
Like a lovesick fool
Like a lovesick fool
Like a lovesick fool
