It's twelve o'clock and I need your attention
It's like the alcohol making my head spin
The sand is a wall, the room is a bottle
Keeping me hopeless till I wake tomorrow

And if tonight ever makes a difference
The way that I feel, the way that I'll remember it
I'll take this down till the glass remains
Swallow the words that I was meant to say

It's a long drive back to Vegas skies
So why don't I make one more wrong turn tonight

So say goodnight, our first goodbye
I've only got forever and forever is fine
Just take your time, we'll stop the clock together
And know that the timing was right

All of these guards they stand tall and defensive
Putting up walls around what once was innocent
Won't let me in but I'm stronger than that
'Cause you stole my eyes and I'll never look back

Girl, last night I forgot to mention
The way that I feel, the way that I'll remember this
When we're this young we have nothing to lose
Just a clock to beat and a hand to choose

It's a long drive back to Vegas skies
So why don't I make one more wrong turn tonight

So say goodnight, our first goodbye
I've only got forever and forever is fine
Just take your time, we'll stop the clock together
And know that the timing was right

It's a long way down
And just fall into place
And you'll fall into me
We'll make it out, you'll see

So say goodnight, our first goodbye

I've only got forever and forever is fine
Just take your time, we'll stop the clock together

And say goodnight, our first goodbye
I've only got forever and forever is fine
Just take your time, we'll stop the clock together
And know that the timing was right
