Trouble, oh, trouble
Haven't slipped a day in years
Haven't slipped a day in years
Haven't slipped a day

Trouble, oh, trouble
Haven't slipped a day in years
Haven't slipped a day in years
Haven't slipped a day

When the neon lights that find you
Leave our memory far behind you
Down the line I will remind you
Listen how I love you

Trouble, oh, trouble
Haven't slipped a day in years
Haven't slipped a day in years
Haven't slipped a day

Trouble, oh, trouble
Haven't slipped a day in years
Haven't slipped a day in years
Haven't slipped a day

When the world steals all hope from you
Wonder where your dreams have gone to You're the one I still belong to Listen why I love you
