Hello my dear How have you been?
We haven't talked since I don't now when.
With this message I send an olive branch with a dove.
And I will give you this message 'cause it's written with love

With love. with love

From the day that we met to the time that we part,
You're a part of my world and a piece of my heart
It's become clear to me this is a sign from above
And I will give you this message 'cause it's written with
love

With love, with love

It was good to see you, We should do lunch soon
And not be as distant as the sun and the moon
So I'll slip on my coat and you'll slide on your gloves
And I will give you this note because it's written with love
