And I came to you that night
Like I came for you that day
Just like I'll come for you
Never again
What I really wanna say
Is that you make me feel this way
Well I don't know how you do, but you do
And you do it again
And what you really should've known
Is that I'll never ever show
And that may seem stupid now
But later it's always the same

I never thought I'd see the end of you
Now that your gone well what will I do
Cause it's the same old town
Same old life
I'm waking at the same old time
Nothings for free
Nothings for free

I'm wishing you were here with me
Right now
And things would never, never be the same
The fact that your not here with me
Right now
Means we could never, never be the same

I've waited for a time
Where I can sit and see just fine
Never knowing where to go
And never knowing what to do
But I plead
You always wanted to be so free
Take a little step back and take a look at me
And you never knowing just what to do
And never wanting to see the truth
It's free

I know I know I know I know I know I know I know I know I know I know
I know I know
Alright that we could never, never be the same

And I could always be so cool
You take a little bit of this and then and wear no shoes
It's true
You'd take advice from a shooting star
Your never knowing just who you are
It's free

I know I know I know I know I know I know I know I know I know I know alright
That we would never never be the same
