Man to man is so unjust.
Greedy, glutenous and envious.
A friend in need is a friend indeed.
We're in this melting pot together,
So we must take heed.
Cast no stone, no man no perfect.
Let me see who can throw first blow.
Nuff got skeleton in hidden closet.
This is something we all should know.
I am your brother. I am your keeper.
You're my brother. You're my keeper.
If there's a problem, let's try to solve it,
Before it gets too late.
This ya problem, do not ignore them,
Because this time it's gonna be great.
There's gonna be a war. Racial war.
Nation slauhtering nation.
There's gonna be a war. Racial war.
Nation raise against nation.
For the mercy of the children
teach the children to unite.
For the mercy of the children
black and white must unite.
No man is perfect beneath the sun.
We all get pay for the work that we done.
Wiping the matter from out of your eye.
Before you come pointing your finger pon I
I am you keeper because you're my brother.
You're my keeper because you're my brother.
You sure there's something you can do,
to help someone worse off than you.
Because he's your brother and he can never be too heavy now.
