"SUGAR ME"

In the morning when I held my pillow, i think about you.
In the night when it get so lonely, all I want is you.
Come on in, quench my thirsty soul,
And I'll quench you too.
You are so heavenly, a dream come true.
Pour your sugar on me. I like your kind of sweet.
Lay your body on me baby, i want your heat.
There comes a time every man needs a woman.
Satisfy my soul.
Touch me softly. Energize me. Take full control.
Let my sweet love come a tumbling in.
Discover new uprising.
I'll push the wood, blaze the fire. / Your love I desire.
Pour your sugar on me. I like your kind of sweet.
Your sweet tender lips, honey, make me hungry.
There comes a time every man needs a woman....
