Wasted time, wasted words,
Pent-up thoughts until it hurts.
I fake a smile and I try to find my way out.
Itchy
It Feels so bad, so bad to see
That you are way different from me.
I can see myself watching you vanish in the crowd.

And you ask me what it's all about.
Against I don't know the answer.
Keep starring right against the wall.
The I bite my lips and cut my tongue,
Words are so damn useless.
Wall You just don't understand at all.
You just don't understand at all
You just don't understand at all

Gleams of hope are passing by
And now I know I won't rely on anyone no more.
Lyrics It always turns out wrong.

So pack your bags, take good care,
Lyric don't look back ? become aware!
Nothing's real. I guess we knew it all along.

And you ask me what it's all about.
I don't know the answer.
Keep starring right against the wall.
I bite my lips and cut my tongue,
Words are so damn useless.
You just don't understand at all.
Itchy You just don't understand at all
You just don't understand at all

It always starts quite fine
And everytime it feels alright.
I fall down again and I lose my trust
Against in anyone around?.
I'd tell you how it hurts inside,
The but you just don't understand at all.
You just don't understand at all

Wall You just don't understand at all
