You've got your make-up
It covers your scars, my dear
I've got a guitar and live out of cars
I fear you've got a problem
And I've got the cure
Rhythm or bullets
What would you prefer?

And everyone's got a secret in hiding
And everyone's got a secret they hold so true
I've got time
But I've got no time for you

Kiss me like you mean it
Cause I've got everything to lose
I've been runnin' round and round in circles
Since the day this all fell through
I've got fifteen seconds to change your mind
I've got fifteen bucks that says I'm out of time
I hope you do well
She said I'll see you in Hell
I know your big fat secret
And I'm dying to tell

I've got my regrets
But I never hide my fear
You've got a new test
But I've got the answers here
We've got our problems
But one thing for sure
Misfortunes so tempting
Does that sound obscure

And everyone's got a secret in hiding
And everyone's got a secret they hold so true
I've got plans
But they've got nothing to do with you
