"Run, Girl"

It's so hard to sleep at night
Without you, my lullaby
I think it's time we let this die
Clear our heads and make it right
It's so hard to say goodbye to you
My lullaby

Let it go

Run, girl
From the broken home
You'll stay with me tonight

It's so hard to sleep at night
Without you here by my side
I think it's time we let this die
Clear our heads and get this right
Keep your fiction
Keep your fantasy
Tell me something true
I don't need your make believe
