What's the use of killing time and getting up today?
Itchy The bosses got lined-up all fine to my dismay.

What about this dreadful noise ringing in my head?
Poopzkid What about this loneliness? Am I dead yet?

Don't you wanna be with me on monday.
Me Don't you disagree with me on monday.
Don't you try to stand in my way on monday.
On
I can't explain the reason why I'm stuck from 9 to 5.
Monday Only my absent-mindedness keeps me alive.

Indifference has gained control, duty lost it's weight.
N my thoughts I'm off and gone, never too late.
