I tried to find a reason, so I tried to find out
If it's all worth trying and what it's all about

I tried to take advantage of everything I know
I try to be so special but I'm trying not to show? Oh no!
Try

I tried to find a person that I'm trying to be
I tried to open up my eyes, but I don't wanna see
I tried to do it slowly, I tried to do it fast
I try to find a feeling and to make it last

I even tried to be somebody else
But everything I try goes straight to hell

I try to do it better
I try try try
It brings me down and I wonder why
I try to do it better
I try try try
To find a way out and still I wonder why

And I tried to be so wise, I tried to play the fool
I tried to stay alone, I tried to be the one for you
Now I'm so tired of trying, that I'm trying not to try
Try But I'm so scared of lying to myself until I die

I even tried to be somebody else
But everything I try goes straight to hell

Refrain

All attempts have been in vain every time I feel the strain
I'm about to lose my head I try try try
Sweaty hands and biting nails as one more trial fails
I'm about to lose my head I try try try

All attempts have been in vain every time I feel the
strain
I'm about to lose my head I try try try
Sweaty hands and biting nails as one more trial fails

I'm about to lose my head I try try try

Refrain
