I couldn't have said it all better
It's one step forward and three steps back
She turned my expectations
From bright white into black

Love looked so different on paper
Now I can't look even with lights low
I need more of the medication
And then I'll let you know

This is my last goodbye
It says forever
This is my last goodbye
We're done together
No more illusions In this institUTION
This is my last goodbye

Not even close to perfection
I can't see us in a crystal ball
No bubblegums and no passion
No butterflies at all

We have lost our ambition
The fairy dust has disappeared
I look back I look back and wonder
How could the days turn into years

This is my last goodbye!

I make ends meet
I am outta here
I won't be coming back
Finally found the only way to stay alive
We have been going nowhere

I'm on my feet again
I don't need anyone to help me fall apart
a lack of sympathy
I don't care anymore
We have been going nowhere

It says forever

WeÃfÃçâ, -Ã™ re done together
