Standing on the edge I used to dive into the dark
Knowing someoneÂ's there who understands

Nothing weighing on my shoulder
Not a thing to fear
I never had a reason to look back
Take
But now IÂ'm scared of everything ahead

Come on just take me back
Me My memories fading out
Show me where we used to be Back Take me back I canÂ't remember how
We felt inside of me

The days are gone when it al felt like time was standing still
The days are gone when everything felt save

More and more reality just makes me more afraid
And truth is getting harder everyday

I wish someone would just take me away

Refrain

Take me back show me the way
Just make me feel at home
Take me back show me the way
I need to feel at home

Refrain

Take me back show me the way
Just make me feel at home
Take me back show me the way
I need to feel at home
