every day you put me down givin' me a world of lies and then you try to run me round and now I'm here all alone again told you this one million times darlin' all I need is just the truth no charity or lies but now I'm tired of believin' you baby everywhere I go it's rain and tears coz I'm still needin' you don't give me any more excuses i've heard them all before only words only words so with or without you oh I know my heart will mend I know it's not easy (to leave you) but you told me lies (only words again) i feel I'm slidin' down drownin' in a sea of memories but I won't call you no you had your way this time it's up to me

baby everywhere I go
rain and tears fall coz I'm still needin' you don't give me any more excuses I've heard them all before chorus

don't you give me only words
