I've been waiting all through the night
Wiping all the sleep from my eyes
Pressed to the window pane
Hope there's no sign of rain
We'll make plans you promise to keep
Side by side as we fall asleep
Suddenly we'll awake
And in surprise we'll say

Goodbye moon, hello sun
Oh, the day has just begun
Hold my hand we'll go downstream
Let's forget just where we've been
These are the times
We will always call as mine and yours alone

Leaves fall lightly onto the ground
Breeze picks up not making a sound
Watch as they fly away
Knowing we're here to stay
Dip your feet bare into the stream
Find a shade spot under the tree
Watch as the clouds go by
Sailing the clear blue skies

Goodbye moon, hello sun
Oh, the day has just begun
Hold my hand we'll go downstream
Let's forget just where we've been
These are the times
We will always call as mine and yours alone

Goodbye moon, hello sun
Oh, the day has just begun
Hold my hand we'll go downstream
Let's forget just where we've been
These are the times
We will always call as mine and yours alone
