"There She Goes"

just one question in my mind still lingers on through time
"oh my dear God, why'd you let happen what happened that nigh?t"
oh my dear God

take the long way back to your house on country roads where we found out an amazing such amazing grace and a sweet sound

there she goes...
and she said that she wanted to stay but she cannot it's time to leave and she said that she wanted to wait in heaven where she will be happy

"my dear God why have you forsaken me cause i've cried out to you so loud and i have been praying... and where is that unfaling; amazing grace to see and where is that sweet sound you took from me?"
