"Catatonic Sleep"

Hello, hello, is there anybody out there? Hear my call
Hello, you look at me and catch nothing at all
Hello, it hurts but I've got nothing to return
Hello, I sense everything but you don't seem to

I'm just longing for the dark, I need a way to disembark
From this ship of endless nightmares

I'm dead yet awake, I'm a catatonic schizophrenic
This is worse than death, I'm a catatonic schizophrenic
Soothe your will to live, I'm a catatonic schizophrenic
Turn of the instruments, end my catatonic sleep

Hello, hello, attacks of madness constantly increase
Hello, you try to hide your pity but I see
Hello, see my eyes, they show you how I feel
Hello, I feel everything but no-one seems to
