Sooner or later she feels the morning come.
Isn't it safer -- dark thoughts all gone.
What a sensation.
She has made it through one more tomorrow.
Raising up her eyes to a brand new sky
She knows the truth at last --
She's never coming back.

She'll be gone.
So many years...
She'll be gone.
Melting away...
She'll be gone -- this is the day.

Someone is walking up to the bedroom door.
Hearing him knocking --
She knows what it's for.
She's at the window wondering why there is no one to save her.

Raising up her eyes to a brand new sky
She knows the truth at last --
She's never coming back.

She'll be gone.
So many years...
She'll be gone.
Melting away...
She'll be gone -- this is the day.

Raising up her eyes to a brand new sky
She knows the truth at last --
She's never coming back.
She'll be gone. So many years...
She'll be gone.
Melting away...
She'll be gone -- this is the day.

Ba Ba Da Da Da..
