and although heavy the time did not parese as much nor even memory the flavor of your lips the scent of your clothes in my closet I see your shade in the curtain of ba?

I do not deny to you that me volvi an ordinary memory and although I sink in the anything I think to you to newspaper and even memory your hand in my hand the color of your skin in summer I deal with olvidarte and was in vain he tell me if extra me?

your also he tell me if you think to me

he has tell me if you remember those days when we swore to love to us as much enamored with the life prisoners of the love of a love which they do not forget

when you remained in my room and you swore to me that eras mio plenty of ilusion

it has not happened in vain if you see inside sides much that I have matured and I say to him that no longer I love to you in silence hidden in my room

I confess to you that even I cry by you each short while that in my portfolio todavia I keep your picture even memory your mouth in my mouth the caresses that return to me crazy to wake up with you was extraordinary it tell me if extra me? your also it tell me if you also think to me your it has tell me if you remember those days
