Line up the stars,
Lead me to the sun.

Line up the stars and what do you see,
A picture of me, or an image that's lost.
Turn up the heat and what do you find,
With quicker heartbeat comes a quickening of time.

Line up the stars,
Lead me to the sun.
Yeah,
Lead me to the sun.
I'll change for you if that's what you want me to do.
Yeah.

Line up the tides and what do you see,
A breaking wave of lost opportunity.
Line up the waves on top of the sea,
Horizons changing like it's changing scenery.

Line up the stars,
Lead me to the sun.
Yeah,
Lead me to the sun.
I'll change for you if that's what you want me to do.
Yeah.

I'll change for you,
If that's what you want me to do.

Line up the stars,
Lead me to the sun.
Yeah,
Lead me to the sun.
I'll change for you if that's what you want me to do.
Yeah.
