Is there a reason that the meanings won't collide?
Is there a feeling that the planets can't unite?
This is for every heart and every face worldwide,
This is for every face in sight.

Is your body bursting at the seams?
No going back on what you believe,
No losing track of things that you've seen.
If your body's fallen to it's knees,
No point in hiding under a dream.
It's going worldwide or that's how it seems.

Is this the journey you imagined all along?
Was it the sleepless night that proved you to be wrong?
Is it the heavy heart and changing pace that's gone?
Is it the steady curve were on?

Is your body bursting at the seams?
No going back on what you believe,
No losing track of things that you've seen.
If your body's fallen to it's knees,
No point in hiding under a dream.
It's going worldwide or that's how it seems.

It's going worldwide,
It's going worldwide,
It's going worldwide,
It's going worldwide,
It's going worldwide,
It's going worldwide.

There'll be no reason that the meanings wont collide,
There'll be no reason that the planets can't unite.
This is for every heart and every face in sight,
This is for every face worldwide.
