"Rewards Of Ignorant Wrath"

Zimmering fire and brimstone
Physical surging force
Beating sterile worldly odds
Glory on the course!

Merge fundamental desires
Toward future supremacy

Indeed an intrepid frontline
Resistance of hidden might
A dead man's quest to make it worthwhile
No better prospects for this night

The only peace I ever found
Was everlasting fucking war...

Accomplishment they'll never quell
We're their fucking death-knell

A heaven void of substance
And no such thing as hell

Tossing beings like darts
In the heart of a decadent ghoul-empire
Nothing but a prelude...
It will be set afire

Rivetting bloodlusting all real
Constraint of a better steel
A time to control the All
And be what one can feel
