"My Eyes"

Aya aya aya aya,
You wanna life .. fashion to me, carry on the VIP,
Rounding in limousines that doesn't change a thing,
'cause the way that I fell for is drowning my heart,
The feeling is so real, you're my love, aha
When I'm with you, there's no one else in the world,
There's only us two, nothing else matters, no,
Things I've been through, always so magical,
The rest are invisible to me.

I see nothing else but us two,
Baby my eyes they remember you,

Don't try to deny, baby it's true,
'cause baby my eyes are just for you,
My eyes, my eyes, they just for you,
My eyes, my eyes, they just for you,
My eyes, my eyes, they just for you,
My eyes, my eyes, they just for you.

Just first class ...who really care,
If you're not there, it's not that fun,
If you're not there to share, I mean that it just feel
