when my days are dark and my nights are cold you come over so i won't be alone you canceled an engagement with your friends i cherish every single second that we spend and i can count on you to never let me down you tell me that you love me without making a sound and i can't help the way i feel when you are around cos when the sun comes out on a rainy day and i thought i'll never love again without my saint

you are)
there you are
when the times got hard they said you'll leave turns out you were the only one that stood by me
you are)
there you are

it's funny how them other guys checking you and saying i can't do the things they can do but i got something they can never get and this will be around even when money ain't

and i thought i'll never love again without my saint
you are)
there you are
when the times got hard they said you'll leave
turns out you were the only one that stood by me
you are)
there you are

and i thought i'll never love again without my saint
you are)
there you are
when the times got hard they said you'll leave
you are)
there you are
