Eyes of gargoyles, standing, watching you fall
The eyes of gargoyles never lie
They are standing and watching my cry for you
The eyes of gargoyles and angels are watching

I've been waiting all Autumn for you to fall for my heart like a gargoyle standing on my own, built strong and ready to break
You better beware because the eyes of gargoyles are watching and waiting

Eyes of gargoyles, standing, watching you fall
The eyes of gargoyles never lie
They are standing and watching my cry for you
The eyes of gargoyles and angels are watching

I've been trying to be strong like a gargoyle standing stone alone waiting for the love of the unknown, the eyes of gargoyles are watching you melt by fire at the bonfire like a gargoyle like a gargoyle you'll never crumble apart

Eyes of gargoyles, standing, watching you fall
The eyes of gargoyles never lie
They are standing and watching my cry for you
The eyes of gargoyles and angels are watching

Eyes of gargoyles
Waiting for you to crumble
And for you to fall
Eyes of gargoyles
Waiting for me to stand tall
And I will watch you crumble Gargoyles and Angels are watching

Eyes of gargoyles, standing, watching you fall
The eyes of gargoyles never lie
They are standing and watching my cry for you
The eyes of gargoyles and angels are watching
