Lift her up
As high as you can
If she's worth it

Break her down
And leave her for dead
If she isn't

When you take her in your arms
Is she all that you want?
Is it real?

Do you trust her?
Does she trust you?

When she takes your hand
Does it speak to you?

You give me puppies
Puppies, puppies
Puppies in my heart
Sad sad puppies
As long as we're apart

She's better than sex just to talk to
And the whole block knows when she fucks you

She's a little too much
For most guys
But she's met her match
When I look in her eyes

She's the best dressed
Princess
Lips pressed
Into mine

She'll drive a slow blade
Into your heart
Anyone else would be
Torn apart

But that's what I like
My boo is down to ride
Fuck life nigga 'cause we've Already died

You give me puppies
Puppies, puppies
Puppies in my heart
Sad sad puppies
As long as we're apart

Platinum rings
Platinum chains
Platinum things
Getting brain in the range
It ain't trickin if you got it
I'm doin it big
Got to love it when a puppy wanna sit on my dick
Pussy so good
Make a nigga want to work
Grab my wood
And I'll hit it out the park
You give me so many puppies
It's out of control
Fuzzy enough to make a nigga take it up the B hole

You give me puppies
Puppies, puppies
Puppies in my heart
Sad sad puppies
As long as we're apart
