It's 2 months it's 12 days 5 hours
Since I didn't talk to you
Girl I really gotta sing
It's been driving me crazy for a while

Cause each time she comes and goes she leaves with a piece of me
And I try to tell myself one day when that learns to love me I bet I'll never see her
She breaks my heart over and over again
But I still ask when will I see her again
I always thought we would be more than just friends
So I ask when will I see her again
Woah ohh oh woah ohh oh woah ohh
When will I see her again
Ohh oh woah ohh oh woah ohh
When will I see her again

I can't think of what I do wrong
Maybe she just put me in the friend zone
And even though that my feeling strong
I think she only texts me when she feels lonely

Cause each time she comes and goes she leaves with
a piece of me
And I try to tell myself one day that she learns to love
me I bet I'll never see her
She breaks my heart over and over again
But I still ask when will I see her again
I always thought we would be more than just friends
So I ask when will I see her again
Woah ohh oh woah ohh oh woah ohh
When will I see her again
Ohh oh woah ohh oh woah ohh
When will I see her again

You've make me the one to watch you cry
When you get hurt by these other guys
And accuse me of knowing that I can give you everything you need

Cause each time she comes and goes she leaves with
a piece of me
And I try to tell myself one day when that learns to love
me I bet I'll never see her
She breaks my heart over and over again
But I still ask when will I see her again
I always thought we would be more than just friends
So I ask when will I see her again
Woah ohh oh woah ohh oh woah ohh
When will I see her again
Ohh oh woah ohh oh woah ohh
When will I see her again
