i been thinking through the night everybodys so uptight people hurt and thats their right cut em all loose, think i might stewin, hangin out in town and my head whirlin around don't trust your mind, it'll let you down don't have a thing to go on

i dont know a thing to say to you
i dont know a thing to say to you

there's a time and there's a place it's not now, it's time to pace things i'd say but just can't face all it means to say them would believe the things i feel then tomorrow get the same deal am i acting on something real or am i blowing it again

i dont know a thing to say to you
i dont know a thing to say to you
i dont know a thing to say to you
