Come on it's over
Until they run for you
I would give the last in me
To catch a glimpse, it's true
When you want her
Is when you call her
And I can't decide if you
Grasp the concept
Cuz I lost it
Still, I hope it's true for you (and you've been?) (believe it?)
I don't talk too much about it
I won't bring it up
Not unless you press too much (hard?)
I won't defend if you doubt it
There's not much to say
I don't think that you should go
Too late, wish I could wait
Still nothing's understood
Inside, so much to hide
Won't do you any good
When you want her
Is when you call her
Can't figure out if you
Grasp the concept
Cuz I lost it
Still, I hope it's true for you (and you've been?) (believe
it?)

I don't wanna think about it
I don't talk to too much, just notice when I go Know enough just not to doubt it
Are you waiting?
Hear the same-old
And with everything I know

I don't wanna think about it
Know enough just not to doubt the flow
And let it go too far
(FUCK?) {WHAT?}
