Verse One:

It was almost a full century ago
The last time, that my heart did not run slow
The rain has fallen on us ever since then
Because of that, new crops will not begin
I think it is because, my love ran away
I hope she comes back, but it won't be today
When she finally does, I will cry for joy
Ask her to, never again, treat my heart like a toy

Chorus:

I made one of the biggest mistakes
Told her to leave, gave myself a heartache
I regret it fully, I cried for her today
My life has fallen apart, since she ran away

Bridge:

Baby, please come back, I am on my knees
I guess that this, is my final plea

CHORUS X 2
