Verse One:

Gray and stormy days, prevail around here Lightning strikes cause screams, deafning shrills of fear
But, for myself, it is a refreshing thing
To get caught in a summer storm, listen to thunder sing
I get hit by lightning, I catch on fire
My hair fills with flames, this is my desire
The power fills in me, with every single roar
I never realized, I had this power before

Chorus:

I stole the power from Zeus, and electric bolt
I feel renewed, holding millions of volts

The power lies, within the storm clouds
The thunder screams, my message aloud

Verse Two:

The sky fills with clouds, the clouds fill with rain
The lightning strikes, it makes me go again
People get drenched, the green grass grows
The thunder rumbles, the river overflows
I feel the power, with every bright strike
I then realize, no one is alike
So I ask, are you ready to be renewed
Let evil end, life's eternal feud

CHORUS X 2
