Verse One:

It was a stormy day, darkness prevailed
I started to walk home, got stuck in the hail
I felt the power, the need to start trouble
I stabbed the sword, into the rubel
My eyes turned red, no need to calm down
I heard the thunder, it was a confirming sound

Chorus:

Lightning, it struck me, it turned me mad
Lightning, forget God, time to act bad

Lightning, electrified by fire
Lightning, I am holding a live wire

Verse Two:

Struck down, living in burning hell
I do not care, if I have fell
A burning desire, to cause people pain
I feel alive, living my life in vain
I hold the power, of electric fire
I still hold on, to a high voltage wire

CHORUS X 2
