I went down to the local bar
To have a drink or two
As I was marching towards the jukebox
My eyes fell on you
The bartender said you're disengaged
And I saw you trying to look my way
I said wait, stop a minute
I said now don't, go too far
I said wait, stop a minute
Cause I really really really got to have you
I always see you walking in the street
Always looking so nice and neat
Always got you on my mind
I know we're gonna have a good time
Bartender said you're disengaged
And I saw you trying to look my way
I said wait, stop a minute
I said now don't, go too far
I said wait, stop a minute
Cause I really really really got to have you
