"so versprecht ihr euch Ewigkeit fast von der Umarmung"

watch me, it sears me
and then take my hand
hear me, oh listen

every dream deepens the despair all my cries hidden in lair and now I let, I let them free free them all, it's too late for me every morning lights up another pain my thoughts stay all the same come with me, don't leave me here forlorn sometimes I tend to wish I wouldn't have been born when will golden eyes shine for me stare at me, goatsuckers shriek I see so many pictures come and go all those impressions rise and flow away through your eyes oh look deep, see the wishes hidden my dawn with you, far away with you all this and more is in me to be, to see, depart with me

I, I don't know what have you done
and I, I would say
all, all away
for you
