Fly, fly, fly, fly

I know people change but I hate we've changed
And it's killing me just trying to figure out where we are
'Cause it ain't the same, girl I'll take the blame
And I'm willing to take this chance if you feel we've traveled too far

Lord knows I wanna keep you
Life without you I just can't see it
But sometimes you gotta let love be what it's gonna be

I'ma let you fly and pray you come back to me
'Cause I do believe if I let you fly and you fly right back
Then it was meant to be
So fly, fly, fly, fly

It was only me, taking flights over sea
But now it's you 'cause they've finally realized you're a star
Whenever we're in the same place at the same time
No, we don't feel the same way, I wanna rewind Take it back to where things made sense, I think we've flown too far

Lord knows I wanna keep you
Life without you, damn I can't see it Sometimes you gotta let love be what it's gonna be

I'ma let you fly and pray you come back to me
'Cause I do believe if I let you fly and you fly right back
Then it was meant to be
So fly, fly, fly, fly

Fly, fly and all I know to let you do is to let you
Fly, fly, hey I wanna fly with you but
I know you, I know you gotta see what you gotta see
Fly, fly and I hope you fly back to me if I let ya

I'ma let you fly and pray you come back to me
'Cause I do believe if I let you fly and you fly right back
Then it was meant to be

So fly, fly, fly, fly

Fly, fly and all I know to let you do is to let you
Fly, fly, hey I wanna fly with you but
Fly, fly and I hope you fly back to me if I let ya
