Well, you can talk to the governor, talk to a prince Talk to a preacher or the president
Some people lie, some people lie and deceive
When they say one thing, they mean something else
completely
I had me a woman, loved me to begin
Two days later she was with another man
Some people lie, some people lie and deceive
But sometime later, they'll get theirs, yes sirree
Well, I bought me a new car, a limo, no doubt The wheels fell off, the salesman he was out

People lie, people lie and deceive
When they say one thing, they mean something else
completely
The bottom line, you understand When some people talk, you can't believe what they're saying
People lie, people lie and deceive
When they say one thing, they mean something else
completely
