

J. Moss

"Livin'"

Visit "Livin'" on MotoLyrics.com

[INTRO:]

Oh no, I thought it'd never come
That day that I tell her that I gotta run
Run, run back to my Savior
To my labor, cause His Word is razor sharp
I forgot I had it in my heart
I gotta do a clean sweep from the start
I drop everything that ain't clean
Don't take it for being mean
A brother's gotta fulfill his dreams
You feelin me?

[VERSE:]

You made my toes bring my balance to the floor
You made my feet walk right over to your door
You had my ankles, tangled, and puzzled
You had my knees to the point they'd buckle
The light of day I'd stumble over your way
Couldn't wait for the night time, the high time, the right time
Bein' as it was, we had to close the door
It's was like turnin' away from a million bucks
But I can't see you no more

[CHORUS:]

It's like the cold of a lonely night
The draft of a window not shut tight
I've got a hunger for bein' right
That's what I'm livin' for, I'm livin' for Enticed by the things you do
It's a one way ticket to a devil's hell foolin' wit you
My soul wants to be true
That's what I'm livin for, I'm livin for

[VERSE:]

You had my legs on a Virtual restrainer
I could not move without permission from my trainer
You had my arms and hands Wrapped around your lust
You made my heart buzz
The light of day I'd stumble over your way
Didn't wait for the night time, the high time, the right

time
Bein' as it was, we had to close the door
It was like turnin' away from a million bucks
But I can't see you no more

[CHORUS]

[BRIDGE:]
I'd give my life
Not under tempation, nor condemnation
For my salvation is more important to me

[CHORUS]
[repeat]

Visit J. Moss page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.