Jenn, now and then, i pretend,
that you see me the same way I see you...
and you, are the one, that I see,
I compare every girl to you..
and no, one comes close, closer than you,
at being everything I wanted,
my dream come true...

Jenn, now and then, I pretend
that everything you see is me..
and though I know you love someone,
I would never jump the gun, I could never interfere...

I write these words to you, for me, to make my conscience clear...
Whoa... so now you know, and now, i let it go,
I just had, to let you know..

That you're the light, of my eye,
a shooting star from a passing sky...

Whoa.. so now you know, and now.. let it go...
I just had, to let you know..

Jenn, now and then.. I pretend
