It's time to unite
we're all going to get together and do it up right forget attitudes
just join the party and grab yourself a brew we're rock, rock, rock, rock, rocking under the light of the moon talk, talk, talk, talk, talking about things we'd like to do we're young but we're not stupid don't be stupid too
it's good and it's loose have another shot of jungle juice the party is getting loud it's about time we set fire to the town the cops are knock, knock, knocking pounding outside the door we ain't going to let them in just party down some more they only want to stop us our crime is we are young and when we get together they know that we are strong

it's time to unite
forget attitudes
just join the party and grab yourself a brew
we're rock, rock, rock, rock, rocking
don't be stupid too
when we get together there's nothing we can't do
